Two Cassia County men have been reappointed as District Commissioners with Flood Control District 16, the Idaho Department of Water Resources has announced.

Robert Beck of Burley and Michael W. Cranney of Oakley were both reappointed to their posts by IDWR Director Karl J. Dreher.

Beck was reappointed as Division 1 Commissioner. His new term will expire in November 2004.

Cranney was reappointed as Division 3 Commissioner. He will serve a term that expires in November 2003.

Flood Control District 16 covers Goose Creek in the Burley area. People who are aware of conditions that might contribute to flooding on Goose Creek should contact either of the two Commissioners.
